Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 01 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly dry with some brightness especially in the west.

Today:
Mainly dry, best of any sunshine across some central and western areas. Northern Isles and far north seeing the odd light shower and the northeast coast is likely to cling on to some cloud for much of the day.

Tonight:
A clear, dry evening for most of Central and Western Scotland but more cloud in the east. The cloud is likely to spread west overnight with drizzle for some places.

Thursday:
Remaining dry and settled with some brightness although it will be rather cloudy at times in east.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Friday and Saturday will remain settled with a mix of cloud and brightness, becoming breezy in the west later. Windy on Sunday with increasing cloud and perhaps some rain later.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.